Announce

WHAT: EUART 2009 International Tour: DUBAI Step!

WHEN: May 30th June 4th 2009

WHERE: World Trade and Exhibition Centre, DUBAI, UAE.

DUBAI May 29th 2009. For the third consecutive year of the EUART international tour, Ilaria Niccolini Production with Carlo Livi Art Gallery and MINT joined forces with their partner VILLA EVENTS to put together an 'Italian Dream': IL SOGNO ITALIANO in Dubai. After its inaugural step in Boston, Massachusetts, EUART took off to the Arab Emirates, for a 5-day show in the heart of one of the most resplendent and sophisticated cities in the Middle East.

'It is a great emotion for all of us who put forth a lot of effort and a big investment to showcase our selection of artists and designers. Together with our co-producer Villa Events, we believed that EUART 2009 was mature enough to not only meet the American taste, but to face the sophisticated expectations of the Emirates, well know for their upscale choices and selections' says Ilaria Niccolini with Marina Terracciano, as soon as they landed in Dubai on May 29th.

And indeed it seems that a lot of buzz has been already generated during the set up of the exhibition, part of the IL SOGNO ITALIANO event.
